

Appointment Reminder Agreement

You have the option of receiving your appointment reminders via phone call, text message, or email. You will receive a reminder for each individual appointment at least 24 hours in advance. You will have the option to confirm or cancel the appointment. If you would like to reschedule an appointment you will be instructed to contact our office at (209) 342-5125.

We hope you will enjoy this new system, as we are excited to bring this upgraded system to all of you. Please choose one option below as well as writing the correct phone number or email address you would like your appointment reminders to be sent to. If these appointment reminders are being sent to a care giver or family member, please sign below. If you choose not to receive any appointment reminders, please check with the front desk regarding your appointments. For more advanced notice of your appointment times please ask the front desk.
